Eligibility Criteria:

1. Nominees should have contributed to a program that improves the lives of the homeless in Volusia and Flagler Counties. Those activities may include such things as homelessness prevention, fundraising for charities, etc.
2. Nominees should have made a significant contribution of personal time, but contributions of money, materials or other resources may be considered.
3. Nominees will be considered on their level of personal contribution, impact of personal contribution, broadness of impact, and the project's suitability as a role model for other community volunteers.
4. The award is intended to recognize individual contributions, not Association or company-wide efforts. If the achievements of two or more people (such as a married couple or co-founders of an organization) absolutely cannot be separated, they can enter as a team and their entry will be considered as one.
5. Some portion of the nominee's community work must have taken place since July 2009, but ongoing efforts outside that time frame that demonstrate a depth of commitment will also be considered.
6. Nominations must be accompanied by a completed entry form to be considered (Community members may nominate themselves, or may be nominated by another member, or the community organization they served).
